is there to assure my friends that I have survived another significant skin-cancer surgery. I will not be showing the picture of what I looked like after the surgery. It's too scary. Brenda took this photo the other day, just two weeks after the surgery. We are very pleased with the dramatic improvement of the wound and scar. Thank you for your prayers!

Part of my ministry here is to bring the morning devotional each day for the teachers and staff.

Make plans now to attend!

Our Russian Adventure Begins!

We have landed in Russia and have begun "ramping up" to our newest adventure in ministry. We are living with our good friends, Kevin & Tammy Plaster, and learning to live, commute, shop, and work in Saint Petersburg, Russia. Soon the Plasters will be gone and we will be on our own. We leave at the same time for the International Missionary Retreat in Corfu, Greece, but they will go back to the USA and we will return to Saint Petersburg without them. Please keep us in your prayers as we fill in here.

Brenda and I are both filling positions at International Academy of Saint Petersburg. I am serving as a teacher, the school Chaplain, and assistant administrator. Brenda is serving as a teacher's aid and a personal tutor. Right now she is tutoring 4 Japanese students who speak very little English. Imagine that!

Please Note Our Phone Number

We would love to hear from you. Our Magic Jack phone is on from 7am—Noon Central Time. It is a US phone number so there is no charge for overseas calls. If you call and we don't answer, please, please, leave a message. In fact, leave a long message. You can just leave a recording of what you were going to say, we get to hear your voice, and we can play it back as many times as we want. The number?

I also speak in Middle-School and High School Chapel services. This gives me the opportunity of sharing the gospel with a multinational group of young people.

This is the biggest challenge! And the most fun. This is Elementary Chapel. These kids are from kindergarten through fifth grade. Thank you Ashlynn, Jacen, Jared, Dylan & Jordan (my grandkids) for teaching me how to interact with these kids.
